We invite you to meet us and our students!

You are warmly invited to take part in one of our upcoming International Teaching Weeks, where you will have the opportunity to interact with our students and academic staff in a dynamic and multicultural environment.

During each week, you will be expected to teach three classes, attend a workshop, and join a Best Practices exchange session. The courses are part of the Bachelor of Business Administration program and are available in English, French or German.

In addition to the academic activities, the program includes a welcome meeting, a festive dinner, and a closing ceremony. We kindly ask all our guests to be present for the entire duration of the week to ensure a rich and engaging experience for both students and faculty.

About Us

The Faculty of Business Administration in Foreign Languages (FABIZ) was established in 1991. Nowadays, the school brings together over 2.500 students of more than 30 nationalities and prides itself on a network of 10.000+ Alumni.

FABIZ is known as the most internationalized school within the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE) and one of the most dynamic business schools in Romania and South-Eastern Europe.

Our Vision & Mission

Our vision: We build a community of responsible leaders and entrepreneurs with a positive and sustainable impact on society.

Our mission: To be a business school which educates professionals for the future by delivering a coherent, consistent, and relevant teaching process exclusively in foreign languages, based on a meaningful curriculum developed with our business partners and correlated with the results of national and international scientific research, and by creating an ecosystem that encourages and supports the initiatives of our students and alumni with a positive and sustainable impact on society.

We are committed to cultivating ethical leadership, critical thinking, and lifelong learning as core values embedded in every aspect of our academic and professional environment.

Leadership

we develop authentic leaders, who are involved in their communities, capable of tackling complex challenges and future-ready.

Excellence

we promote the most effective and recent teaching and research methods, techniques and tools for the personal and professional development of our students and professors.

Ambition

we aim to be a top business school, internationally recognized through the success of our alumni, professors and researchers.

Diversity

we are an open intercultural community promoting inclusion, academic liberty, freedom of speech and the humanity universal values.

Ethics

we provide a study, research, and work environment based on ethics, integrity, equity, and mutual respect.

Responsibility

we promote lifelong learning as a mean of social progress and sustainable development at local, regional, national and international levels.

Sustainability

we cooperate with our partners to promote a sustainability culture, contribute to local communities development and to the progress of society.

Participation Costs & Funding

Participation in the International Teaching Week is free of charge. No registration or participation fee applies.

Participants are responsible for securing their own funding and arranging their travel, accommodation, meals, local transport and other personal expenses. However, our school will organize a farewell dinner and will provide full support in having a social and cultural program (e.g., organizing museum tours, contracting guides for city tour and other tours, etc)

Participants from EU and Erasmus+ Programme Countries

Academic staff from Erasmus+ partner universities may apply for a Staff Mobility for Teaching (STA) grant through their home institution. Before applying, participants should contact their Erasmus+ or International Relations Office to confirm:

- the existence of a valid inter-institutional agreement with ASE;
- funding availability;
- applicable documents and deadlines.
- Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE) Erasmus code: RO BUCURES04

Participants from Non-EU Universities

Academic staff from non-EU universities are welcome to apply. For that, our institutions need to sign an Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and an Erasmus+ agreement.

International mobility funding may be available, depending on the country, the relevant mobility project and the institutional agreements in place.

Participants should check available Erasmus+ or institutional funding with their International Relations Office, respectively with ASE's Erasmus office.

Important Information

- Acceptance to the ITW does not automatically include or guarantee Erasmus+ funding.
- Funding decisions are made separately by the institution managing the mobility grant.
- Participants should confirm their acceptance and funding before making non-refundable bookings.
- To qualify for Erasmus+ funding, participants must complete five days of mobility, covering the full duration of the International Teaching Week.
- Funded participants must comply with the duration, teaching and documentation requirements of the relevant Erasmus+ project.
